Economic Outlook

The cedi is expected to show relative stability in 2024, supported by favorable agreements with creditors. Reserves buildup and disbursements from IMF and World Bank funds will reinforce stability in the 2nd half of the 2024. Inflation, although expected to ease throughout the year, remains susceptible to geopolitical risks. Consumer spending in Ghana is forecasted to recover and the equity market is likely to see positive returns, with the financial stocks tipped to provide growth support to the local bourse as prices of bank stocks recover from the lows of 2023.

The performance data shown represents past performance, which is no Guarantee of future investment results. Investment returns and principal value may fluctuate. Current performance may be lower or higher than what is shown.

Auditor: John Kay & Co Trustee: Guarantee Trust Bank (Ghana) Ltd.

Investment Objective

The Fidelity Balanced Trust ("The Trust") is an open-ended Unit Trust that will invest primarily in Equity Securities and Fixed Income Securities. The Trust has an objective of preserving and enhancing unit holders' wealth to meet medium to long term financial goals while at the same time creating liquidity to meet immediate needs of unit holders.

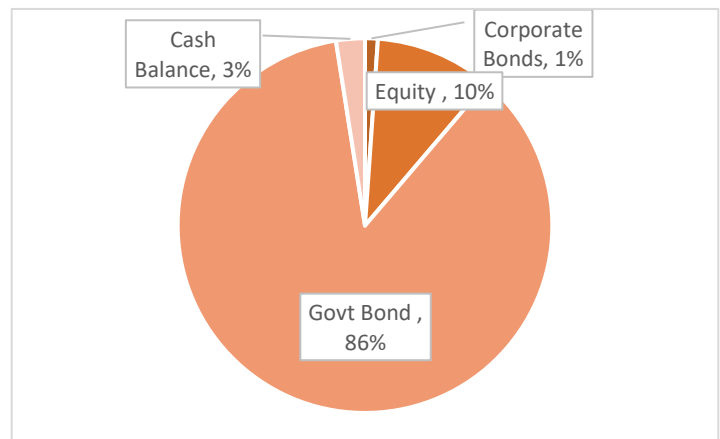

Portfolio Strategy

The Unit Trust invests in a suitable mix of equities and fixed income securities to achieve its investment objective. The mix may be varied periodically as the Manager consistently looks out for lucrative opportunities in different asset classes, based on the macroeconomic environment and the market cycle. This dynamic approach to asset allocation will maximize the potential in achieving the return objective of the Trust.
